

Clean Technology Showcase

presented by WCTA

About the Event

The Washington Clean Technology Alliance presents the inaugural Clean Technology Showcase, a one-day event to network, learn and invest. The Showcase will feature the latest clean tech innovations from Northwest companies and research institutions. Expert speakers and break-out sessions will further highlight over 20 companies focused on sustainability and new technologies. Enjoy exhibits, poster sessions and business development opportunities. Full-day registration includes breakfast, lunch and reception.

The Clean Technology Showcase will be held on June 23 at the Bell Harbor International Conference Center in Seattle.
