

2026 Legislative Session Weekly Report

CleanTech Alliance

February 8, 2026

Week 4

This week marked the first major legislative cutoff: the House of Origin Policy Committee Cutoff. By Wednesday, February 4, all bills were required to be passed out of their policy committees in their house of origin to remain alive this session. Bills deemed necessary to implement the budget (NTIB), including all revenue proposals, are exempt from cutoff deadlines.

This week, the long-anticipated “millionaires tax” proposal was officially introduced. On Tuesday, Democrats held a press conference to outline the proposal, which would impose a 9.9% income tax on income over $1 million. You can watch the press conference here. Despite having voiced support for the concept in his State of the State address earlier this session, Governor Ferguson stated that he could not support the proposal as introduced, noting that the tax-relief provisions do not go far enough. You can watch the Governor’s press conference here and read more about his position here. The bill was heard in the Senate Ways and Means Committee on Friday. There were hundreds of people signed up to testify on both sides of the bill. You can watch the hearing here.

While the income tax proposal has received significant attention, it would not take effect until 2028 and therefore does not address the current budget shortfall. To balance the 2025–27 biennial budget, the Legislature will need to consider other options. Several revenue measures are under discussion, including increases to nicotine, beer, and wine taxes; elimination of certain tax exemptions; potential transfers from the Climate Commitment Account; spending reductions; and use of the state’s rainy day fund. The next revenue forecast is scheduled for mid-February, after which both the House and Senate are expected to release their respective supplemental budget proposals.

Following Wednesday’s cutoff, legislative focus shifts to fiscal committees. Bills with a fiscal impact must pass out of their fiscal committee in their house of origin by Monday, February 9. After that deadline, attention will turn to floor action.

CleanTech Alliance Specifics

Senate Bill 6004, sponsored by Senator Boehnke (R), and House Bill 2103, sponsored by Representative Stearns (D), both broaden existing authority for cities, towns, code cities, operating agencies, and certain public and private utilities and districts to contract with public or private parties for renewable or nonemitting electric generation, including paying for project capability regardless of operational status, and align legacy statutes with Washington's clean energy transformation framework and modern financing practices. Both bills failed to advance before cutoff and are considered dead for this legislative session.
